TO SUPREME COURT.

Case of Guardsmen Who Would Not Take Oath Regarded as Important.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—Secretary Baker, Attorney General Gregory and Judge Advocate General Crowder decided Saturday that the action of the federal court in Boston in ordering the release of a Massachusetts guardsman in camp at Framingham after he refused to take the new federal oath, was of such far-reaching consequence that an effort would be made to have the government's appeal expedited to the circuit court of appeals and ultimately to the supreme court.

GALLAGHER "IRON MAN"

Pitched Two Days in Succession and Should Have Won Both

SUPPORT WOBBLY AGAINST RUTLAND

League Game Won by Latter—Montpelier Beat Barre in Exhibition

Gallagher proved himself to be an iron man yesterday when he pitched his second game in as many days, holding Barre to four scattered hits and striking out four men, giving Montpelier the victory in an exhibition game at Intercity park by a score of 4 to 1.

Gallagher was opposed by Tomasi, who pitched a masterly game for Barre, but he lost through poor judgment on the part of Brown in the fifth inning when he misjudged Doyle's single, letting the ball roll past him and letting three runs in before the ball could be relayed to the infield. Outside of this one inning Tomasi had the Montpelier team feeding out of his hands, allowing but three hits and striking out six men.

The fielding of both teams was snappy, and more team work was displayed than there has been at any time this season by either team. The score:

Summary: Runs made by—Stuart, Breen, Wakfield, Bartlett, Gallagher. Two-base hit—Doyle. Sacrifice hit—Russell. Sacrifice flies—Wakfield, Bartlett. Double play—Gace to Davidson to Stuart. First base on errors—Montpelier. Passed ball—Phillips. Bases on balls—Off Tomasi 2, off Gallagher 5. Struck out—By Tomasi 6, by Gallagher 4. Wild pitch—Tomasi. Hit by pitched ball—Russell. Stolen bases—Breen, Comoli. Time of game—1:45. Umpires—Bartlett and Scamplin.

Notes of the Game.
There was a good-sized crowd for such a street game as this up the valley. Both yesterday's and Saturday's games started exactly alike, with a light shower before the teams were on the field. Charles Hoernle seemed to put a lot of confidence into the team work of the I. A. C. Tomasi thought he would take a chance on Doyle in the fifth, when he passed Gallagher, but it proved to be the wrong move in this case.

Gallagher was going stronger at the close of the game than in the first innings. In the seventh inning Gallagher retired the side on four pitched balls, and Tomasi threw seven.

Gallagher never took a chance on Comoli when there was anyone on bases, giving him a pass each time.

Wednesday's game is between Burlington and Barre at the Berlin street grounds.

MONTPELIER SHAKY IN THE FIELD

Rutland Supported Ero Well and the Team Won Saturday's League Game by the Score of 3 to 1—Gallagher's Support Was Poor.

Saturday's game between Montpelier and Rutland at Intercity park in which Gallagher and Ero, the Indian pitcher, engaged in a pitchers' duel, had the breaks all in favor of the Indian, Rutland winning by a score of 3 to 1.

Until the seventh inning Rutland could garner but three scattered hits off Gallagher's delivery and two of these were of the very scratchy order. In the last three innings they fattened their hit column with five more, although but two of these would have been tallied as hits with a snappy field behind him. At times he seemed a little unsteady, as he hit two men with pitched balls and walked one, but his speed was terrific and when he could get them over the batters simply couldn't connect.

Ero also pitched a great game and deserved all the credit given him. His control was very good and in the pinches he always came through with flying colors. The Chief allowed but six scattered hits and struck out six of the Montpelier batsmen.

In the field Rutland clearly outclassed Montpelier in all departments, making but one error and that a muff by Barrett on Gallagher's fly to short center in the fifth inning; but nothing came of this, as Gallagher died on second. The Montpelier defense was almost apposite, as nearly all the infield hits were juggled and there never was anyone to back a wild throw; two wild heaves by Phillips to catch a man at second sailing into deep center and letting the man go to third were responsible for two of Rutland's runs.

Rutland scored the first run of the game when Walsh was hit by a pitched ball, stole second, went to third on a wild heave by Phillips to catch him at second and scored on a battery error. Their second run was tallied after Bowman shot his infield scratch past Butler, stole second and went to third on Phillips' second wild peg to second, scoring on a sacrifice fly to left field. Their last run came in the ninth inning when Butler fumbled Shedd's grounder, Shedd stealing second and crossing the rubber on Ero's two-base clout.

Montpelier's only tally was in the first inning after Breenahan reached first base on a fielder's choice and went all the way around on Bartlett's two-bagger.

25,000 TROOPS TO THE BORDER

Balance of Vermonters at Essex Will Go to Complete Force

NO NEW HITCH WITH MEXICO

War Department Order Is Solely to Relieve Troops Called June 1

Washington, Aug. 14.—All the National Guards units included Wilson's call of June 1 not yet on the Mexican border were ordered there Saturday by the war department. Between 20,000 and 25,000 additional troops will thus be added to the border forces. National Guard forces there will number approximately 125,000, and the total of all troops on the border or in Mexico will be 175,000.

Secretary Baker made a formal announcement that the troop movement had nothing whatever to do with the Mexican situation as such and was solely to relieve thousands of troops now held in mobilization camps only because they lack a few recruits to bring the units up to the minimum strength.

Saturday's order sends the troops from Kentucky, Ohio and Vermont to the border as soon as transportation can be arranged for them and will move all the others as soon as they are properly equipped.

War department officials decided on their action because the troops are restive in camp and there seemed to be no stimulus to recruiting while there was no prospect of movement to the border. They now expect most of the regiments will be filled before the troops leave.

The Kentucky, Ohio and Vermont troops, which will move practically at once will add the following units to the long border line.

Kentucky: One brigade of three regiments of infantry, one company signal corps, one field hospital and one ambulance company, mobilized at Fort Thomas.

Ohio: Three brigades of three regiments each in infantry, one squadron cavalry, one battalion field artillery, one battalion engineer, one battalion signal corps, three field hospitals, two ambulance companies, all mobilized at Columbus, O.

Vermont: One regiment infantry and one squadron cavalry, mobilized at Colchester.

Wear Regals for Comfort

A lot of men don't think much about the matter of shoes until they have a pair that fail to give comfort.

Before the discomfort comes, make certain of shoe satisfaction by buying Regals for your next pair.

Regals are reasonable in price, too—$4, 4.50 and $5.00.

With the season half over, Rutland has a firm hold on the first place in the Vermont State league.

Plank, the old Athletic twirler, discarded by Mack two years ago, pitched for St. Louis against Cleveland, holding them to two hits and these were both made by Speaker. In the last four games against the Red Sox, Washington and Cleveland, Plank has allowed but seven scattered hits, which goes to show that he is pitching the most consistent ball in the big leagues to-day. If Connie had him today, the chances are that he would not be in the cellar, where he has been from the beginning of the season.
